Dear Kate:

At the close of each semester the Center for Teaching Thank-a-Teacher program provides an opportunity for students to recognize excellence in teaching by writing notes of appreciation to their outstanding instructors. One of your students participated in this program, and it is my pleasure to deliver these words of gratitude to you.

A student from your RHET 1030: 0091 course has written the following:

You are a great teacher, I have learned a lot from your Rhetoric class. It is my great honor to be one of your Rhetoric students. By the way, your name translate to Chinese is 凯特奈斯比特 (Kate Nesbit) a very beautiful name in Chinese language. Thank you!
- Student wishes to remain anonymous

Congratulations and thank you for your exceptional teaching efforts at The University of Iowa. Your hard work and dedication to your students have not gone unnoticed, and we certainly appreciate all that you do.

Sincerely,

Jean C. Florman
Director
